

I would like to add my comments to oppose the consumer bank associations challenge to the indiana telephone privacy act. There is no need for this organization to have access to hoosiers who prefer not to be contacted.